ERA COMMITTEES ELECTIONS

The National Baseball Hall of Fame will take the first steps toward Induction Weekend 2024 on Dec. 3 in Nashville, Tenn., as the Contemporary Baseball Era Committee considers a ballot of eight candidates for Hall of Fame election...Results of the vote will be announced at 7:30 p.m. ET on Sunday, Dec. 3 live on MLB Network's MLB Tonight...Any electees to emerge from the Contemporary Baseball Era Committee balloting will be honored during Hall of Fame Weekend 2024, July 19-22 in Cooperstown...The 2024 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be held at 1:30 p.m. ET on July 21.

ANNOUNCING THE RESULTS: Hall of Fame President Josh Rawitch will announce the results of the Contemporary Baseball Era Committee balloting at 7:30 p.m. ET Sunday, Dec. 3, live on MLB Network's MLB Tonight...If any electees emerge from the voting, Zoom calls with each individual electee are expected to be held Sunday evening.

THE CONTEMPORARY BASEBALL ERA MANAGERS/EXECUTIVES/UMPIRES BALLOT: Four former managers, two executives and two umpires were named Oct. 18 to the Hall of Fame's Contemporary Baseball Era Committee Managers/Executives/Umpires Ballot...The eight finalists include: Cito Gaston, Davey Johnson, Jim Leyland, Ed Montague, Hank Peters, Lou Piniella, Joe West and Bill White...The Contemporary Baseball Era Committee considers candidates whose primary contribution to the game came from 1980 through the present...All candidates except Peters are living...Any candidate who receives votes on 75 percent of the ballots cast by the 16-member Contemporary Baseball Era Committee will be elected and enshrined as part of the Class of 2024.

THE CONTEMPORARY BASEBALL ERA ELECTORATE: The 16-member Contemporary Baseball Era Committee electorate, which is reconstituted each time it meets, will be announced in November...The Contemporary Baseball Era Committee Managers/Executives/Umpires ballot was devised by the Baseball Writers' Association of America-appointed Historical Overview Committee, comprised of 11 veteran members: Adrian Burgos (University of Illinois), Bob Elliott (Canadian Baseball Network); Jim Henneman (formerly Baltimore Sun); Steve Hirdt (Stats Perform); David O'Brien (The Athletic); Jack O'Connell (BBWAA); Jim Reeves (formerly Fort Worth Star-Telegram); Tracy Ringolsby (InsideTheSeams.com); Glenn Schwarz (formerly San Francisco Chronicle); Susan Slusser (San Francisco Chronicle); and Mark Whicker (Southern California News Group)...The HOC annually sets ballots for the Era Committee elections.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE: The Contemporary Baseball Era players ballot covers candidates whose most significant career impact was realized from 1980 through the present... Eligible candidates include managers and umpires with 10 or more major league seasons and retired for at least five years (candidates who are 65 years or older are eligible six months following retirement); and executives retired for at least five years (active executives 70 years or older are eligible for consideration regardless of the position they hold in an organization and regardless of whether their body of work has been completed)... All candidates must not be on Baseball's Ineligible List.

FUTURE ELECTIONS: The Contemporary Baseball Era is split into two separate ballots – one ballot to consider only players who made their greatest impact on the game since 1980, and another composite ballot consisting of managers, executives and umpires whose greatest contributions to the game have come since 1980... Each of these three Era Committees – the Contemporary Baseball Era player ballot, the Contemporary Baseball Era non-player ballot and the Classic Baseball Era composite ballot – will rotate on an annual basis, and each ballot will consist of eight candidates... Effective beginning in January 2023, eligible players must have been retired for 16 or more seasons, equal to a one-year waiting period following their final potential year of eligibility on the BBWAA ballot... Eras considered for yearly election are as follows: December 2023 (for Class of 2024) – Contemporary Baseball/Managers/Umpires/Executives; December 2024 (for Class of 2025) – Classic Baseball; December 2025 (for Class of 2026) – Contemporary Baseball/Players... This cycle will repeat every three years.

CHAMPIONS TO BE HONORED

The 2023 World Series champions will be celebrated in Cooperstown in Autumn Glory, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's exhibit that chronicles the postseason... The 2023 edition of Autumn Glory will be unveiled in the coming weeks on the Museum's third floor and feature artifacts from the 2023 postseason... The exhibit will run through the 2024 Major League Baseball postseason... The Museum collections contain many artifacts documenting the entire history of World Series and postseason play, including Don Larsen's cap and Yogi Berra's mitt from Larsen's 1956 perfect game; Joe Carter's bat from his 1993 Series-ending blast; and World Series rings from the last century of Fall Classic competition.

AL CHAMPIONS: The Texas Rangers are making their third appearance in the World Series following back-to-back American League pennants in 2010 and 2011... The Rangers fell to the Giants in the 2010 World Series and were defeated by the Cardinals in the 2011 Fall Classic... The Museum collections contain artifacts from the 2010 Rangers, including a bottle of dirt collected from the pitching mound at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington prior to Game 3 on Oct. 30, which marked the first World Series game played in North Texas... Artifacts in Cooperstown from the 2011 Rangers include the jersey worn by Nelson Cruz during Game 6 of the 2011 ALCS vs. the Tigers when Cruz hit his sixth home run of the postseason and was named series MVP.

NL CHAMPIONS: The Arizona Diamondbacks are making their second appearance in the World Series following their 2001 debut when they defeated the Yankees in seven games... The Museum collections feature several artifacts from the 2001 Diamondbacks, including the bat used by Luis Gonzalez to record the walk-off single in Game 7, a cap worn by World Series co-MVP Randy Johnson during the World Series, a road cap worn by World Series co-MVP Curt Schilling in the World Series and regular season and a baseball autographed by the 2001 Diamondbacks team.

MEMBERS OF TEAMS WITH ARTIFACTS AT MUSEUM: Several members of the 2023 Rangers and 2023 Diamondbacks are represented in the Museum's collection beyond those listed above, including:

- Adolis García, with a batting helmet worn on April 22, 2023, when he became the second player in MLB history with at least five extra base hits and eight RBI in one game
- Max Scherzer, with spikes worn on Sept. 12, 2021, when he recorded the 3,000th strikeout of his big league career
- Bruce Bochy, with a baseball from his final win as Giants manager on Sept. 26, 2019
- Nathan Eovaldi, with spikes worn during the 2018 World Series
- Corey Seager, with a bat used during Game 6 of the 2020 World Series when he was named series MVP
- Will Smith, with spikes worn in Game 6 of the 2021 World Series when he recorded the final out
- Corbin Carroll, with a jersey he wore on Aug. 27, 2023, when he stole his 40th base of the season
- Zac Gallen, with spikes he wore on Sept. 11, 2022, when he set a franchise record with 44.1 straight scoreless innings
- Evan Longoria, with a batting helmet he wore on Aug. 1, 2017, with the Rays when he hit for the cycle

THE FALL CLASSIC

THE VOTING ELECTORATE: Of the 405 Hall of Fame ballots distributed to BBWAA voters for the 2023 election, 389 were returned, a return rate of 96.0 percent...The most ballots ever cast in one BBWAA Hall of Fame election came in 2011 with 581...Voting privileges are extended to those BBWAA members meeting their organization’s Hall of Fame voting qualifications and in good standing with the BBWAA...Voters can select from zero to 10 names on their Hall of Fame ballot...Votes on 75 percent of all ballots cast are necessary for election.

CREDIT AN ASSIST: Thanks to the firm of Ernst and Young for its assistance in verifying the vote, year-in and year-out.

CAREFUL SELECTION: 2023 marked the 79th Hall of Fame election held by the BBWAA...Starting in 1936, the BBWAA has elected someone 70 times and on nine occasions it did not elect anyone (1945, 1946, 1950, 1958, 1960, 1971, 1996, 2013, 2021)...On nine occasions, no election was held (1940, 1941, 1943, 1944, 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965)...The BBWAA membership has elected from zero to five candidates in each of its 79 elections...As quantified in the chart below, the BBWAA has one player more than any other quantity (28 times).

ELECTED	TIMES	LAST	CLASS
5	1	1936	Cobb, Johnson, Mathewson, Ruth, Wagner
4	5	2019	Halladay, Martinez, Mussina, Rivera
3	9	2017	Bagwell, Raines, Rodríguez
2	27	2020	Jeter, Walker
1	28	2023	Rolen
0	9	2021	----

JUMP FOR JOY: Scott Rolen debuted on the BBWAA Hall of Fame ballot in 2018 and received 10.2 percent of the vote...2020 BBWAA electee Larry Walker received 10.2 percent of the BBWAA vote in his fourth year on the ballot in 2014 but had received more than 20 percent of the vote in each of his first three years...Rolen and Walker are the only players elected by the BBWAA who received less than 12 percent of the vote in any election during their candidacy since Bob Lemon, who was elected in 1976 and received 11.9 percent of the vote in his first year eligible in 1964.

HOME AT THIRD: Scott Rolen became just the ninth third basemen elected to the Hall of Fame by the BBWAA, joining Wade Boggs, George Brett, Chipper Jones, Eddie Mathews, Paul Molitor, Brooks Robinson, Mike Schmidt and Pie Traynor...Rolen is just the 18th third baseman elected to the Hall of Fame via any method.

GET CLOSER: Scott Rolen’s five-vote margin for election was the closest in the BBWAA voting since Iván Rodríguez secured four votes more than the necessary 75 percent in the 2017 balloting...On four occasions, candidates earned election by a single vote, the last time coming in 1991 when Ferguson Jenkins was elected...See “Close and Cigar” chart on Page 8.

GREAT START: Carlos Beltrán appeared on 46.5 percent of all BBWAA ballots submitted in the 2023 election, the most of any of this year’s first-time candidates...Historically, every candidate who has topped the 42 percent mark on their first year on the BBWAA ballot has been elected to the Hall of Fame in subsequent years.

RULES FOR ELECTION: Voting criteria for BBWAA electors can be found at <http://baseballhall.org/hall-famers/rules-election/bbwaa>...Voting rules state that: “Voting shall be based upon the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, and contributions to the team(s) on which the player played.”

THE GAME’S ELITE: The Hall of Fame is comprised of 342 elected members...Included are 270 former major league players, as well as 40 executives/pioneers, 22 managers and 10 umpires...The BBWAA has elected 136 candidates to the Hall while the veterans committees (in all forms) have chosen 180 deserving candidates ...The defunct “Committee on Negro Baseball Leagues” selected nine men between 1971-77 and the Special Committee on Negro Leagues in 2006 elected 17 Negro Leaguers...There are currently 74 living members.

74 AMBASSADORS: The 74 living members of the Hall of Fame are: Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Jeff Bagwell, Harold Baines, Johnny Bench, Craig Biggio, Bert Blyleven, Wade Boggs, George Brett, Rod Carew, Steve Carlton, Orlando Cepeda, Bobby Cox, Andre Dawson, Dennis Eckersley, Rollie Fingers, Carlton Fisk, Pat Gillick, Tom Glavine, Goose Gossage, Ken Griffey Jr., Vladimir Guerrero, Rickey Henderson, Whitey Herzog, Trevor Hoffman, Reggie Jackson, Ferguson Jenkins, Derek Jeter, Randy Johnson, Chipper Jones, Jim Kaat, Sandy Koufax, Barry Larkin, Tony La Russa, Greg Maddux, Juan Marichal, Edgar Martinez, Pedro Martínez, Willie Mays, Bill Mazerowski, Fred McGriff, Paul Molitor, Jack Morris, Eddie Murray, Mike Mussina, Tony Oliva, David Ortiz, Jim Palmer, Tony Pérez, Mike Piazza, Tim Lincecum, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken, Mariano Rivera, Iván Rodríguez, Scott Rolen, Nolan Ryan, Ryne Sandberg, Mike Schmidt, John Schuerholz, Bud Selig, Ted Simmons, Lee Smith, Ozzie Smith, John Smoltz, Frank Thomas, Jim Thome, Joe Torre, Alan Trammell, Larry Walker, Billy Williams, Dave Winfield, Carl Yastrzemski and Robin Yount.

CONNECTING GENERATIONS: Willie Mays, born May 6, 1931, is currently the oldest living Hall of Famer at 92...The Hall of Famer to reach the highest age was Bobby Doerr, who was 99 years, 220 days old when he passed away in 2017...David Ortiz, who was born on Nov. 18, 1975, is the youngest living Hall of Famer at 47 years of age...The youngest elected Hall of Famer was Sandy Koufax, who was 36 when he was elected in 1972.

BETWEEN THE LINES: The following is a breakdown by position of the 270 Hall of Famers who earned their election on the playing field...Also included is the last major leaguer to be elected at each position...Numbers in parentheses indicate Hall of Famers elected by the BBWAA at each position.

MUSEUM NEWS FROM COOPERSTOWN

SOULS OF THE GAME EXHIBIT TO DEBUT IN SPRING OF 2024: The stories and impact of the Black baseball experience will be recognized and celebrated through The Souls of the Game: Voices of Black Baseball, the groundbreaking new exhibit opening in spring of 2024 at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown...From the decades-long history of Black baseball prior to the formation of the Negro Leagues, through the complexities of baseball’s re-integration, to the challenges that remain today, The Souls of the Game will reveal the deep connections between baseball and Black America...The exhibit is part of the Hall of Fame’s Black Baseball Initiative that includes additional outreach programs, educational materials and virtual programming and is made possible by the Yawkey Foundation with additional support from Bill Janetschek in honor of his siblings Robert and Ann, the Anthony A. Yoseloff Foundation and the Bisignano Family...The new exhibit will be in the Yawkey Gallery...The Souls of the Game, a title that pays tribute to W.E.B. Du Bois’s seminal 1903 book “The Souls of Black Folk,” will explore the Black baseball experience of those African-American men, women and children who were and are an integral part of our National Pastime...Subtitled Voices of Black Baseball, the exhibit will highlight first-person accounts by the many individuals whose Black baseball experiences shaped them, their community, baseball and America at large...Featuring historically significant artifacts, important documents and engaging photographs, and utilizing audio, video and interactive elements, the exhibit will tell a more inclusive story of baseball, shine a light on and correct misconceptions about Black baseball, and provide an authentic, cohesive narrative of African-American baseball history...The Souls of the Game will feature men and women telling the story of Black baseball in their own voices. Sections will cover stories of early Black baseball, the Negro Leagues era, the complexities of reintegration, Jackie Robinson, post-reintegration progress and retrogress, and calls for change in today’s game.

MUSEUM HONORS VETERANS DAY BY OFFERING FREE ADMISSION TO VETERANS IN NOVEMBER: The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum celebrates Hall of Famers’ service to their country year-round in the iconic Plaque Gallery...And during November, the Hall of Fame will offer all military Veterans free admission to the home of baseball in Cooperstown...All Veterans will be admitted to the Museum free of charge in November with proof of Veteran status... Following the month of November, the Hall of Fame will continue to provide 20-year career retired military and active duty military with free Museum admission every day the Hall of Fame is open, with all other Veterans also receiving discounted admission each day... Earlier this year, the United States Navy commissioned the USS Cooperstown, a Freedom-variant littoral combat ship (LCS) in the Surface Force based in Mayport, Fla....The USS Cooperstown’s namesake honors the 70 Hall of Famers who served the United States during wartime...This heritage is reflected in the ship’s motto, “America’s Away Team.”

GOING BANANAS IN COOPERSTOWN: The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum opened a new exhibit display dedicated to the Savannah Bananas Sept. 15, one day before Cooperstown hosted the Bananas' final game of their 2023 World Tour at Doubleday Field, which welcomed a sellout crowd to watch the Party Animals defeat the Bananas to win the teams' season series... Among the artifacts in the new exhibit are one of Bananas team owner Jesse Cole's yellow top hats, a kilt once used as part of a uniform, a Bananas jersey signed by fans, Bananas and Party Animals caps, a signature yellow baseball, championship rings from a prior incarnation of the team in the Coastal Plain League, notebooks with ideas, Banana Ball rules and a scorecard.

PICTURING AMERICA'S PASTIME EXHIBIT ON EXHIBIT ON LONG ISLAND: The National Pastime and the art of photography came of age almost simultaneously, and baseball has long been a favorite subject of professional and amateur shooters alike...This year at The Long Island Museum in Stony Brook, N.Y., fans can view some of the game's most telling images from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's world-renown archive in the traveling exhibition Picturing America's Pastime: A Snapshot of the Photograph Collection at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum...Running through Oct. 15, Picturing America's Pastime features 51 framed photographs representing the Hall of Fame's collection of approximately a quarter million images...Just like the Museum's exhibit in Cooperstown, the touring version of Picturing America's Pastime shows the historic link between the two American passions...Featuring work from photographers spanning generations, like Charles M. Conlon, Carl J. Horner, Arthur Rothstein, William C. Greene and Brad Mangin – along with many unidentified photographers whose images have been donated to the Museum – Picturing America's Pastime captures the grandeur of the early game to the vibrancy of today's sport through images in sepia, color and black-and-white...Picturing America's Pastime will also be traveling to the Dubuque Museum of Art in Dubuque, Iowa (2024); the Upcountry History Museum-Furman University in Greenville, S.C. (2025); and the Lauren Rogers Museum of Art in Laurel, Miss. (2025).

TIME TO VISIT: The Museum is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. until the day before Memorial Day, when summer hours of 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. resume...The Museum is open every day of the year, except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day...
