ALL-STARS AND COOPERSTOWN

The 90th MLB All-Star Game will be played at Progressive Field in Cleveland on July 9...The connection between Hall of Famers and the All-Star Game goes back to 1933, three years before the first class of Hall of Famers was elected:

IN THE BEGINNING: When the All-Star Game debuted on July 6, 1933 in Chicago, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., was not yet a part of the American lexicon...But for 17 players, both managers and two umpires, Cooperstown – and immortality – would become a part of their future...Of the 30 players that appeared in that first All-Star Game, 17 – eight from the National League and nine from the American League – would one day be elected to the Hall of Fame...The NL box score featured future Hall of Famers Frankie Frisch, Chick Hafey, Gabby Hartnett, Carl Hubbell, Chuck Klein, Bill Terry, Pie Traynor and Paul Waner, while future Hall of Famers who appeared in the game for the AL included Earl Averill, Joe Cronin, Rick Farrell, Lou Gehrig, Charlie Gehringer, Lefty Gomez, Lefty Grove, Babe Ruth and Al Simmons...The teams were managed by future Hall of Famers Connie Mack (AL) and John McGraw (NL), with future Hall of Fame umpires Bill Klem and Bill McGowan at first and second base, respectively.

1,282 AND COUNTING: In the 80-plus years since the first All-Star Game, future Hall of Famers have accounted for 1,282 All-Star Game selections – 304 pitcher selections and 978 position player selections...Of these selections, Hank Aaron has accounted for 25, the most of any player, followed by Willie Mays and Stan Musial who have each been selected to 24 Mid-Summer Classics...Of the 18 players selected to start the 1934 All-Star Game, only one, Wally Berger, has not been elected to the Hall of Fame...The 28 future Hall of Famers selected to play in the 1934 contest is also a record...No big league game has ever featured more future Hall of Famers than the 1934 All-Star Game, which had 31 (including playing and non-playing Hall of Famers).

BBWAA BALLOTING RECAP

THE 2019 BALLOT: The BBWAA ballot featured 35 players, including 20 new candidates and 15 returnees...Candidates appearing on the necessary 75 percent of all ballots cast to earn election appear in bold below...Candidates receiving less than five percent of the vote are no longer eligible for BBWAA consideration and appear in italics below...Fourteen players will return for consideration in 2020...Fred McGriff, by virtue of being on the ballot for 10 years, is no longer eligible for BBWAA consideration...McGriff will be eligible for consideration by the Today's Game Era Committee in the fall of 2021...A total of 425 votes were cast, with 319 votes necessary for election and 22 votes necessary to remain on the ballot...Roy Halladay and Mariano Rivera became the 55th and 56th players elected to the Hall on their first BBWAA ballot...The final results, in order of percentage received with number of years on the ballot:

THE VOTING ELECTORATE: Of the 428 Hall of Fame ballots distributed to BBWAA voters for the 2019 election, 425 were returned, an all-time record return rate of 99.3 percent...The most ballots ever cast in one BBWAA Hall of Fame election came in 2011 with 581...Voting privileges are extended to those BBWAA members meeting their organization's Hall of Fame voting qualifications and in good standing with the BBWAA...Voters can select from zero to 10 names on their Hall of Fame ballot...Votes on 75 percent of all ballots cast are necessary for election.

CAREFUL SELECTION: 2019 marked the 75th Hall of Fame election held by the BBWAA...Starting in 1936, the BBWAA has elected someone 67 times and on eight occasions it did not elect anyone (1945, 1946, 1950, 1958, 1960, 1971, 1996, 2013)...On nine occasions, no election was held (1940, 1941, 1943, 1944, 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965)...The BBWAA membership has elected from zero to five candidates in each of its 75 elections...As quantified in the chart below, the BBWAA has voted in either one or two players more than any other quantity (26 times).

ELECTED	TIMES	LAST	CLASS
5	1	1936	Cobb, Johnson, Mathewson, Ruth, Wagner
4	5	2019	Halladay, Martinez, Mussina, Rivera
3	9	2017	Bagwell, Raines, Rodríguez
2	26	2016	Griffey Jr., Piazza
1	26	2012	Larkin
0	8	2013	-----

20/20 VISION: With the election of Roy Halladay, Edgar Martinez, Mike Mussina and Mariano Rivera, the BBWAA has elected at least two Hall of Fame candidates in six straight years and a total of 20 candidates during that time...No six-year period in history has resulted in as many BBWAA electees, with the previous high of 15 coming in the six-year period from 1951-56...That was also the last time the BBWAA elected at least two candidates six years in a row.

FIVE FOR FOUR: The 2019 election marks the fifth time in 75 BBWAA Hall of Fame elections that the BBWAA has elected four players...Three of those elections have come in the last five years, with Craig Biggio, Randy Johnson, Pedro Martínez and John Smoltz elected in 2015 and Vladimir Guerrero, Trevor Hoffman, Chipper Jones and Jim Thome elected in 2018...The other two years that featured exactly four BBWAA electees were 1947 (Mickey Cochrane, Frankie Frisch, Lefty Grove and Carl Hubbell) and 1955 (Joe DiMaggio, Gabby Hartnett, Ted Lyons and Dazzy Vance).

56 AT FIRST: The election of Roy Halladay and Mariano Rivera brings the total of first-year BBWAA inductees to 56 and marks the sixth straight year with at least one first-ballot inductee, the first such stretch since a run of eight straight years from 1988-95.

PERFECT 100: Mariano Rivera becomes the first player elected unanimously by the BBWAA...The highest percentage received by any candidate in the 74 previous BBWAA elections was Ken Griffey Jr., who received 99.3 percent of the vote in 2016.

DIFFERENT BUT SAME: Roy Halladay and Edgar Martinez became the second BBWAA electees in the same election to receive the exact same number of votes...Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner tied with 95.1 percent of the vote apiece in the inaugural election of 1936.

HEROES REMEMBERED: Roy Halladay becomes the sixth player posthumously elected by the BBWAA by standard election procedures...Christy Mathewson (1936), Willie Keeler (1939), Herb Pennock (1948), Harry Heilmann (1952) and Rabbit Maranville (1954) were previous posthumous electees by the BBWAA...Roberto Clemente was elected posthumously in a special BBWAA election in 1973.

FINAL ANSWER: Edgar Martinez becomes the fifth player elected to the Hall of Fame by the BBWAA in his final year of eligibility, joining Red Ruffing (1967), Ralph Kiner (1975), Jim Rice (2009) and Tim Lincecum (2017).

RULES FOR ELECTION: Voting criteria for BBWAA electors can be found at <http://baseballhall.org/hall-famers/rules-election/bbwaa>... Voting rules state that: "Voting shall be based upon the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, and contributions to the team(s) on which the player played."

THE GAME'S ELITE: The Hall of Fame is comprised of 329 elected members...Included are 232 former major league players, 30 executives, 35 Negro Leaguers, 22 managers and 10 umpires...The BBWAA has elected 132 candidates to the Hall while the veterans committees (in all forms) have chosen 171 deserving candidates (100 major leaguers, 30 executives, 22 managers, 10 umpires and nine Negro Leaguers)...The defunct "Committee on Negro Baseball Leagues" selected nine men between 1971-77 and the Special Committee on Negro Leagues in 2006 elected 17 Negro Leaguers...There are currently 79 living members.
