2017 AWARD WINNERS

Bill King, winner of the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasters; Rachel Robinson, the 2017 Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award winner; Claire Smith, the 2017 winner of the Baseball Writers' Association of America's J.G. Taylor Spink Award, will be honored at the 2017 Hall of Fame Awards Presentation on Saturday, July 29 at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown.

KING OF THE AIR: Bill King, whose quarter-of-a-century run as the voice of the Oakland Athletics cemented his status as one of the Bay Area's iconic voices, has been selected as the 2017 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum...Born Oct. 6, 1927, in Bloomington, Ill., King began his broadcasting career with the Armed Forces Radio Network during World War II, then returned home where he worked covering high school games...Moving to the Bay Area in the late 1950s, King was hired by KSFO-AM as a fill-in broadcaster on San Francisco Giants games – subbing for future Frick Award winners Lon Simmons and Russ Hodges – before landing the job as the play-by-play voice of the San Francisco Warriors of the National Basketball Association in 1962...In 1966, King added the duties of Oakland Raiders play-by-play to his schedule, becoming one of the signature voices of the National Football League when the Raiders and the American Football League merged with the NFL in 1970... King was reunited with Simmons when he joined the Athletics' broadcast team in 1981, and they worked together in the A's booth through 1995...Known for his signature handlebar mustache, passionate delivery and his ever-present "Holy Toledo!" exclamation, King called the revitalization of the Athletics during the "Billy Ball" years with manager Billy Martin in the early 1980s, then provided the narrative for the "Bash Brothers" teams that won three American League pennants and the 1989 World Series title from 1988-90...King, who passed away on Oct. 18, 2005, is the 41st winner of the Frick Award.

HERE'S TO YOU, MRS. ROBINSON: Rachel Robinson has been named the 2017 recipient of the John Jordan "Buck" O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award... CLAIRE CHOICE: Claire Smith, a pioneering voice among women sportswriters, has been elected the 2017 winner of the J.G. Taylor Spink Award in balloting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America...Smith covered the New York Yankees for five years beginning in 1983 for the Hartford Courant and maintained a high profile as a columnist with The New York Times from 1991-98 and as an editor and columnist for the Philadelphia Inquirer from 1998-2007...A graduate of Temple University, Smith currently serves as ESPN's news editor of remote productions, responsible for the integration of news and analysis in live game broadcasts and the Baseball Tonight and SportsCenter studio programs...A two-time Pulitzer Prize nominee and winner of three New York Times Publishers' Awards, Smith was the New York Chapter Chair of the BBWAA in 1995 and '96 and has served on three Hall of Fame Era Committees...Smith is the 68th winner of the Spink Award.

ALL-STARS AND COOPERSTOWN

The 88th MLB All-Star Game will be played at Marlins Park in Miami on July 11...The connection between Hall of Famers and the All-Star Game goes back to 1933, three years before the first class of Hall of Famers was elected:

IN THE BEGINNING: When the All-Star Game debuted on July 6, 1933 in Chicago, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., was not yet a part of the American lexicon...But for 17 players, both managers and two umpires, Cooperstown – and immortality – would become a part of their future...Of the 30 players that appeared in that first All-Star Game, 17 – eight from the National League and nine from the American League – would one day be elected to the Hall of Fame...The NL box score featured future Hall of Famers Frankie Frisch, Chick Hafey, Gabby Hartnett, Carl Hubbell, Chuck Klein, Bill Terry, Pie Traynor and Paul Waner, while future Hall of Famers who appeared in the game for the AL included Earl Averill, Joe Cronin, Rick Farrell, Lou Gehrig, Charlie Gehringer, Lefty Gomez, Lefty Grove, Babe Ruth and Al Simmons...The teams were managed by future Hall of Famers Connie Mack (AL) and John McGraw (NL), with future Hall of Fame umpires Bill Klem and Bill McGowan at first and second base, respectively.

1,196 AND COUNTING: In the 80-plus years since the first All-Star Game, future Hall of Famers have accounted for 1,196 All-Star Game selections – 259 pitcher selections and 937 position player selections...Of these selections, Hank Aaron has accounted for 25, the most of any player, followed by Willie Mays and Stan Musial who have each been selected to 24 Mid-Summer Classics...Of the 18 players selected to start the 1934 All-Star Game, only one, Wally Berger, has not been elected to the Hall of Fame...The 28 future Hall of Famers selected to play in the 1934 contest is also a record...No big league game has ever featured more future Hall of Famers than the 1934 All-Star Game, which had 31 (including playing and non-playing Hall of Famers).

BBWAA BALLOTING RECAP

THE 2017 BALLOT: The BBWAA 2017 ballot featured 34 players, including 19 new candidates and 15 returnees...Candidates appearing on the necessary 75 percent of all ballots cast to earn election appear in bold below...Candidates receiving less than five percent of the vote are no longer eligible for BBWAA consideration and appear in italics below...Fifteen players will return for consideration in 2018...A total of 442 votes were cast, with 332 votes necessary for election and 23 votes necessary to remain on the ballot...Iván Rodríguez became the 52nd player elected to the Hall on his first BBWAA ballot...Lee Smith received 34.1 percent of the vote in his final year of eligibility on the BBWAA ballot...The final results, in order of percentage received with number of years on the ballot:

THE VOTING ELECTORATE: Of the 459 Hall of Fame ballots distributed to BBWAA voters for the 2017 election, 442 (96.3 percent) were returned...The most ballots ever cast in one BBWAA Hall of Fame election came in 2011 with 581...Voting privileges are extended to those BBWAA members meeting their organization's Hall of Fame voting qualifications and in good standing with the BBWAA...Voters can select from zero to 10 names on their Hall of Fame ballot...Votes on 75 percent of all ballots cast are necessary for election.

CAREFUL SELECTION: 2017 marked the 73rd Hall of Fame election held by the BBWAA...Starting in 1936, the BBWAA has elected someone 65 times and on eight occasions it did not elect anyone (1945, 1946, 1950, 1958, 1960, 1971, 1996, 2013)...On nine occasions, no election was held (1940, 1941, 1943, 1944, 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965)...The BBWAA membership has elected from zero to five candidates in each of its 73 elections...As quantified in the chart below, the BBWAA has voted in either one or two players more than any other quantity (26 times).

ELECTED	TIMES	LAST	CLASS
5	1	1936	Cobb, Johnson, Mathewson, Ruth, Wagner
4	3	2015	Biggio, Johnson, Martinez, Smoltz
3	9	2017	Bagwell, Raines, Rodríguez
2	26	2016	Griffey Jr., Piazza
1	26	2012	Larkin
0	8	2013	----

SEVENTY UP: Five players on the 2017 BBWAA ballot received at least 70 percent of the vote: Jeff Bagwell, Tim Raines, Iván Rodríguez, Trevor Hoffman and Vladimir Guerrero, tying the mark for the most in BBWAA election history...Only twice before has a BBWAA election resulted in five candidates reaching the 70-percent mark: 1947 (when Carl Hubbell, Frankie Frisch, Mickey Cochrane and Lefty Grove were elected and Pie Traynor received 73.9 percent of the vote) and the inaugural election of 1936 (when Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Honus Wagner, Christy Mathewson and Walter Johnson were all elected).

ANOTHER DOZEN: With the election of Jeff Bagwell, Tim Raines and Iván Rodríguez, the BBWAA has elected at least two Hall of Fame candidates in four straight years and a total of 12 candidates during that time...The BBWAA has only once before elected as many as 12 candidates in any four-year period by traditional voting procedures, as 12 candidates were voted in from 1936-39...Lou Gehrig was the 13th candidate elected by the BBWAA in the four years from 1936-39, but Gehrig was elected non-traditionally by acclamation late in 1939...The last time two or more candidates earned election in four straight years was 1989-92, which featured a total of nine electees (Johnny Bench and Carl Yastrzemski in 1989, Joe Morgan and Jim Palmer in 1990, Rod Carew, Fergie Jenkins and Gaylord Perry in 1991 and Rollie Fingers and Tom Seaver in 1992).

SECOND FIRST AT CATCHER: Iván Rodríguez becomes the second catcher in history to be elected by the BBWAA in his first year of eligibility, following Johnny Bench in 1989...Rodriguez is the 10th catcher ever elected by the BBWAA...Following Mike Piazza's election in 2016, Rodríguez's selection marks the first time since 1954-55 (Bill Dickey and Gabby Hartnett) that the BBWAA has elected catchers in back-to-back years.

YOUNG AT HEART: Iván Rodríguez becomes the youngest current Hall of Famer, having been born Nov. 27, 1971, 33 days after Pedro Martínez...At 45 years old, Rodríguez is one of six Hall of Famers in their 40s: Roberto Alomar, Frank Thomas, Mike Piazza, Ken Griffey Jr. and Martínez...The youngest elected Hall of Famer ever was Sandy Koufax, who was 36 when he was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

RECORD CROWD IN COOPERSTOWN: The election of Jeff Bagwell, Tim Raines and Iván Rodríguez brings the total of living Hall of Fame electees in the last four years to 17...The last time as many as 17 living Hall of Famers were elected in a four-year span was 1972-75...The record for living inductees in any four-year span is 19 from 1969-72.

52 AT FIRST: The election of Iván Rodríguez brings the total of first-year BBWAA inductees to 52 and marks the fourth straight year with at least one first-ballot inductee, the first such stretch since a run of five straight years from 2001-05.

TEAMING UP IN HOUSTON: 2017 Hall of Fame electee Jeff Bagwell and 2015 electee Craig Biggio played together on the Astros for 15 seasons, the entirety of Bagwell's career (1991-2005)...Among Hall of Famers who played on only one MLB team, Bagwell and Biggio are only the fourth pair of teammates to play at least 15 years together...Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski hold the record for most seasons as teammates while playing for just one team, playing together for 17 seasons (1956-72) and each spending their entire career with the Pirates...Carl Hubbell and Mel Ott played together for 16 seasons with the New York Giants (1928-43), while Whitey Ford and Mickey Mantle played together on the Yankees for 15 seasons (1953-67).

RULES FOR ELECTION: Voting criteria for BBWAA electors can be found at baseballhall.org/hall-famers/rules-election/bbwaa...Voting rules state that: "Voting shall be based upon the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, and contributions to the team(s) on which the player played."

THE GAME'S ELITE: The Hall of Fame is comprised of 317 elected members...Included are 220 former major league players, 30 executives, 35 Negro Leaguers, 22 managers and 10 umpires...The BBWAA has elected 124 candidates to the Hall while the veterans/eras committees (in all forms) have chosen 167 deserving candidates (96 major leaguers, 30 executives, 22 managers, 10 umpires and nine Negro Leaguers)...The defunct "Committee on Negro Baseball Leagues" selected nine men between 1971-77 and the Special Committee on Negro Leagues in 2006 elected 17 Negro Leaguers...There are currently 73 living members.
