INDUCTION CEREMONY SEPT. 8 IN COOPERSTOWN

This summer's Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will take place at 1:30 p.m. ET on Wednesday, Sept. 8, on the grounds of the Clark Sports Center...The Induction Ceremony will be broadcast live exclusively on MLB Network...The Hall of Fame's 2021 Induction Ceremony will honor the members of the Class of 2020: Derek Jeter, Marvin Miller, Ted Simmons and Larry Walker.

Lawn seating at the Induction Ceremony is free and unticketed...The Clark Sports Center is located one mile south of the Hall of Fame on Susquehanna Avenue.

The Hall of Fame's Annual Awards Presentation will remain an indoor, television-only event, taking place on Saturday, July 24, with the Award Winners or their representatives being invited back to Cooperstown to be recognized at the Induction Ceremony...The Awards Presentation, which will be televised by MLB Network at 12 p.m. ET on Sunday, July 25, will honor 2021 Ford C. Frick Award winner for broadcasting excellence, Al Michaels, and the 2020 Frick Award winner, Ken Harrelson; the 2021 Baseball Writers' Association of America Career Excellence Award winner, Dick Kaegel, and the 2020 BBWAA Career Excellence Award winner, Nick Cafardo; and the 2020 Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award winner, David Montgomery.

BY AIR: The Induction Ceremony will be broadcast live exclusively on MLB Network, which has televised the event every year it has been held since the network's launch in 2009...MLB Network Radio on SiriusXM will cover the ceremony nationwide...The ceremony will also be streamed live at baseballhall.org.

COME ONE, COME ALL: More than 40,000 fans have attended four of the past five Induction Ceremonies...In 2007, an estimated 82,000 fans packed Cooperstown, honoring the Hall of Fame induction of Cal Ripken Jr. and Tony Gwynn and setting a Hall of Fame Weekend attendance record...Following 2007, the top nine estimated crowds for Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies: 55,000 (2019); 53,000 (2018); 50,000 (1999 and 2016); 48,000 (2014); 45,000 (2015); 40,000 (1995); 27,500 (2017); 27,000 (2001 and 2005).

LIFE OF BRIAN: Emmy Award-winning anchor Brian Kenny, who hosts MLB Now and MLB Tonight on MLB Network while appearing across the network's studio programming, will be the Master of Ceremonies at the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in 2021...In 2011, Kenny, author of the bestseller "Ahead of the Curve: Inside the Baseball Revolution," joined MLB Network, which is televising the Induction Ceremony for the 12th time.

INDUCTION CEREMONY CREDENTIALS: The 2021 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 8...Media credential applications for the Induction Ceremony will be accepted beginning in August at credentials.mlb.com... THE CLASS OF 2020

CAPTAIN FANTASTIC: Derek Jeter played 20 seasons, all for the New York Yankees, and led the Yankees to five World Series titles, winning World Series MVP honors in 2000...He was named 1996 American League Rookie of the Year after hitting .314, scoring 104 runs and helping the Yankees win their first World Series title in 18 seasons...A 14-time All-Star who finished in the Top 10 of the AL Most Valuable Player voting eight times, Jeter was named 2000 All-Star Game Most Valuable Player...He led the American League in hits twice (1999, 2012) and runs scored once (1998)...A five-time Gold Glove Award winner at shortstop, Jeter never played a position other than short in his 2,674 games in the field, which ranks second all-time among shortstops...Jeter was named eighth captain in Yankees history in 2003...He scored 100-or-more runs 13 times, hit .300-or-better 12 times and stole 30-or-more bases four times...Jeter reached the 200-hit plateau in eight seasons, third-most such seasons all time and the most of any shortstop...Jeter ranks sixth all-time in hits (3,465), seventh in at-bats (11,195), 11th in runs scored (1,923), 23rd in total bases (4,921), 29th in games played (2,747) and 35th in doubles (544)...He appeared in 33 Postseason series over 16 seasons, the most Postseason series of any player in history...Over a record 158 Postseason games, he hit .308 with 111 runs scored, 200 hits, 32 doubles, 20 homers, 61 RBI and 66 walks.

MARVIN'S GARDENS: Marvin Miller was elected as the head of the Major League Baseball Players Association in 1966 and quickly turned the union into a powerhouse...By 1968, he had negotiated the first collective bargaining agreement between the owners and players and increased the minimum salary by more than 40 percent...By 1970, he had secured the right to independent arbitration to resolve player grievances...Through that arbitration process, Miller won free agency for the players when Dave McNally and Andy Messersmith played out their contracts following the 1975 season...By the time Miller retired in 1982, the average player salary was approximately 20 times what it was when he took over...Miller passed away on Nov. 27, 2012.

TED TALK: Ted Simmons played for 21 seasons for the Cardinals, Brewers and Braves, totaling a .285 batting average, 2,472 hits, 483 doubles, 248 home runs and 1,389 RBI...An eight-time All-Star – and the first catcher to start the All-Star Game for both the National League (1978) and the American League (1983) – he garnered MVP votes seven times in his career and finished among his league's top 10 players in batting average six times...His 193 hits in 1975 are the most of any catcher who caught at least 150 games in a season, and his 192 hits in 1973 rank second on that same list...Among those who played at least 50 percent of their games at catcher, Simmons ranks second in hits, second in doubles, second in RBI and fifth in runs scored...Simmons never struck out more than 57 times in a season, and he is one of only 12 players in history with at least 240 home runs and fewer than 700 strikeouts...Simmons is one of only six catchers with at least two seasons of appearing in at least 150 games at catcher (1973, 1975), and Simmons ranked eighth all-time in games caught (1,771) and first all-time in homers among NL switch-hitters (182) at the time of his retirement.

HELLO LARRY: Larry Walker played 17 seasons for the Expos, Rockies and Cardinals...A seven-time Gold Glove Award winner in right field and a five-time All-Star, Walker won three National League batting titles and led the NL in on-base percentage twice and slugging percentage twice...Walker's .565 career mark ranks 12th all-time and his career OPS of .965 ranks 15th all-time...Walker won the 1997 National League Most Valuable Player Award, hitting .366 with NL-leading totals in home runs (49), total bases (409, the 18th-best single-season total in history), on-base percentage (.452) and slugging percentage (.720)...Walker won three Silver Slugger Awards as an outfielder...He posted a 30-homer/30-steal season in 1997 with 49 home runs and 33 stolen bases, becoming just the 14th different NL player to reach that milestone...Walker drove in at least 100 runs in five seasons, hit better than .300 in nine seasons and scored 100-or-more runs in four seasons...Walker is one of four retired players in history – along with Hank Aaron, George Brett and Willie Mays – with at least a .300 batting average, 300 home runs and 200 stolen bases.

2020 & 2021 AWARD WINNERS

Al Michaels, the 2021 winner of the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasters, and Dick Kaegel, the 2021 winner of the Baseball Writers' Association of America's Career Excellence Award, will be honored at the July 24 Awards Presentation and recognized at the 2021 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Cooperstown. The 2020 Award Winners, including Frick Award winner Ken Harrelson, BBWAA Career Excellence Award winner Nick Cafardo and Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award winner David Montgomery, will also be honored at the July 24 Awards Presentation and recognized at the Induction Ceremony.

CALL HIM AL: Al Michaels, whose passionate and authoritative voice was the nationwide soundtrack of the game for more than a decade, has been selected as the 2021 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum...Born Nov. 12, 1944, in Brooklyn, Michaels attended Dodgers games at Ebbets Field while growing up and followed the team on radio via legendary voices like Red Barber and Vin Scully...After attending Arizona State University, Michaels was hired to do public relations for the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, then moved to Hawaii, where in 1968 he became the broadcaster of the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders and also called football and basketball games for the University of Hawaii...Michaels became the lead announcer for the Cincinnati Reds in 1971 and then the San Francisco Giants in 1974...Michaels joined ABC Sports in 1976 as a back-up announcer for Monday Night Baseball, the beginning of a 30-year tenure with the network...He became lead announcer of Monday Night Baseball in 1983 while calling an array of other sports, including nearly two decades of Monday Night Football and calling the Miracle on Ice at the 1980 Winter Olympics...As ABC's lead baseball voice, Michaels called the thrilling Game 5 of the 1986 ALCS between the Boston Red Sox and California Angels, where the Red Sox rallied from a three-run deficit in the ninth with the Angels one out away from clinching the series...He also was prepared to cover Game 3 of the 1989 World Series between San Francisco and Oakland when the Loma Prieta earthquake occurred, causing widespread damage and delaying the Fall Classic for several days...Michaels returned to NBC Sports in 2006 and continues to work there today as the voice of the network's Sunday Night Football package...Michaels is the 45th winner of the Frick Award.

WRITE TIME FOR KAEGEL: Dick Kaegel, the eyes and ears of Missouri baseball fans for six decades, was elected the 2021 winner of the BBWAA Career Excellence Award in balloting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America... Kaegel started his career with the Belleville (Ill.) News-Democrat while in high school in southwest Illinois before earning a degree in journalism from the University of Missouri...He worked his way to St. Louis in 1968, joining the staff of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch...Kaegel covered the Cardinals for the Post-Dispatch for 12 years, eventually earning the job as the paper's executive sports editor...In 1979, Kaegel became the managing editor of the Sporting News, and in 1981 he was named TSN's editor, a position he held until the summer of 1985...Kaegel moved on to the Kansas City Star and the Royals beat in 1988, staying with the paper until 2003...He finished his career at MLB.com, famously covering every one of the Royals' 162 games in 2011 four years after receiving a liver transplant following a cancer diagnosis...Kaegel is the 72nd winner of the BBWAA Career Excellence Award.

HAWK'S PRIDE: Ken Harrelson, who became a Chicago icon while calling White Sox games for 34 of his 43 years behind the mic, was selected as the 2020 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum...Born Sept. 4, 1941, in Woodruff, S.C., and raised in Savannah, Ga., Harrelson was a star amateur athlete in several sports before signing with the Kansas City Athletics in 1959 following a heated bidding war...A series of deals in the 1967 season brought Harrelson to Boston, where he helped the "Impossible Dream" Red Sox win the American League pennant...In 1968, Harrelson had his best season, hitting 35 home runs to go with an AL-best 109 RBI during the Year of the Pitcher...A broken leg in Spring Training of 1970 hastened the end of his playing career, and, after a stint as a pro golfer, Harrelson turned to broadcasting...He called games on television and radio for the Red Sox from 1975-81, then moved to the White Sox in 1982...He was hired as the White Sox's general manager following the 1985 campaign, and after one season in the front office returned to the broadcast booth with the Yankees in 1987...Harrelson rejoined the White Sox's booth in 1989, remaining with the team for the next three decades before retiring after the 2018 season...A five-time Emmy Award winner, Harrelson's trademark calls of "You can put it on the board...Yes!" and "Mercy!" became the nightly soundtrack for multiple generations of White Sox fans...Harrelson became the 44th winner of the Frick Award.

PHILADELPHIA FEELING: David Montgomery is the 2020 recipient of the John Jordan “Buck” O’Neil Lifetime Achievement Award, presented to an individual for extraordinary efforts to enhance baseball’s positive impact on society...Montgomery, who passed away on May 8, 2019, becomes the fifth winner of the Buck O’Neil Award, which was established in 2007 to honor an individual whose efforts broadened the game’s appeal and whose character, integrity and dignity is comparable to the late O’Neil, who passed away in 2006 after eight decades of contributions to the game...Montgomery became a Philadelphia icon while spending his entire career in baseball, spanning parts of five decades, devoted to the Phillies, working his way up from the sales office to become executive vice president and chief operating officer before acquiring an ownership stake in the team...He later served as president, chief executive officer and then assumed the role of chairman in January of 2015...In his role as president and CEO, Montgomery became the face of the Phillies front office...Under his leadership, the team enjoyed one of the longest sustained periods of success in franchise history from 2007-11, winning five consecutive National League East titles, two NL pennants and the World Series in 2008...Montgomery advanced many community service efforts for the Phillies, including helping raise more than $19 million for the ALS Association of Greater Philadelphia, the official charity of the team...Montgomery worked closely with Phillies Charities, Inc., the official charitable arm of the organization, to provide support for other nonprofit organizations in the Philadelphia area and in the communities of the Phillies’ minor league affiliates...O’Neil was honored as the first recipient of the Award in 2008...Roland Hemond (2011), Joe Garagiola (2014) and Rachel Robinson (2017) are the other previous winners of the O’Neil Award.

NICK OF TIME: Nick Cafardo, whose tireless reporting and discerning writing brought Red Sox baseball to millions of New Englanders, was named the winner of the 2020 BBWAA Career Excellence Award in balloting by the Baseball Writers’ Association of America...A Weymouth Mass., native and Suffolk University graduate, Cafardo joined the Boston Globe as baseball columnist in 1989 and took over the Globe’s venerable Sunday notes column...The author of four baseball books and the winner of the Massachusetts Sportswriter of the Year Award in 2014, Cafardo covered the Red Sox’s World Series wins in 2004, 2007, 2013 and 2018...Cafardo, who passed away while still on the job on Feb. 21, 2019, became the 71st winner of the BBWAA Career Excellence Award.

ALL-STARS AND COOPERSTOWN

The 91st MLB All-Star Game will be played at Coors Field in Denver on July 13...The connection between Hall of Famers and the All-Star Game goes back to 1933, three years before the first class of Hall of Famers was elected:

IN THE BEGINNING: When the All-Star Game debuted on July 6, 1933 in Chicago, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., was not yet a part of the American lexicon...But for 17 players, both managers and two umpires, Cooperstown – and immortality – would become a part of their future...Of the 30 players that appeared in that first All-Star Game, 17 – eight from the National League and nine from the American League – would one day be elected to the Hall of Fame...The NL box score featured future Hall of Famers Frankie Frisch, Chick Hafey, Gabby Hartnett, Carl Hubbell, Chuck Klein, Bill Terry, Pie Traynor and Paul Waner, while future Hall of Famers who appeared in the game for the AL included Earl Averill, Joe Cronin, Rick Farrell, Lou Gehrig, Charlie Gehringer, Lefty Gomez, Lefty Grove, Babe Ruth and Al Simmons...The teams were managed by future Hall of Famers Connie Mack (AL) and John McGraw (NL), with future Hall of Fame umpires Bill Klem and Bill McGowan at first and second base, respectively.

1,309 AND COUNTING: In the 80-plus years since the first All-Star Game, future Hall of Famers have accounted for 1,309 All-Star Game selections – 304 pitcher selections and 1,005 position player selections...Of these selections, Hank Aaron has accounted for 25, the most of any player, followed by Willie Mays and Stan Musial who have each been selected to 24 Mid-Summer Classics...Of the 18 players selected to start the 1934 All-Star Game, only one, Wally Berger, has not been elected to the Hall of Fame...The 28 future Hall of Famers selected to play in the 1934 contest is also a record...No big league game has ever featured more future Hall of Famers than the 1934 All-Star Game, which had 31 (including playing and non-playing Hall of Famers).

2021 BBWAA BALLOTING RECAP

THE 2021 BALLOT: The BBWAA ballot featured 25 players, including 11 new candidates and 14 returnees...No candidate received votes on 75 percent of ballots cast necessary to earn election...Three first-year candidates received the five percent of the vote necessary to remain on the ballot: Mark Buehrle (11.9%), Torii Hunter (9.5%) and Tim Hudson (5.2%)...Candidates receiving less than five percent of the vote are no longer eligible for BBWAA consideration and appear in italics below...Seventeen players will return for consideration in 2022...A total of 401 votes were cast, with 301 votes necessary for election and 21 votes necessary to remain on the ballot...A record 14 blank ballots were cast...The final results, in order of percentage received with number of years on the ballot:

NAME	YR	2021	NAME	YR	2021	NAME	YR	2021
Curt Schilling	9	71.1%	Jeff Kent	8	32.4%	LaTroy Hawkins	1	0.5%
Barry Bonds	9	61.8%	Manny Ramírez	5	28.2%	Barry Zito	1	0.2%
Roger Clemens	9	61.6%	Sammy Sosa	9	17.0%	A.J. Burnett	1	0.0%
Scott Rolen	4	52.9%	Andy Pettitte	3	13.7%	Michael Cuddyer	1	0.0%
Omar Vizquel	4	49.1%	Mark Buehrle	1	11.0%	Dan Haren	1	0.0%
Billy Wagner	6	46.4%	Torii Hunter	1	9.5%	Nick Swisher	1	0.0%
Todd Helton	3	44.9%	Bobby Abreu	2	8.7%	Shane Victorino	1	0.0%
Gary Sheffield	7	40.6%	Tim Hudson	1	5.2%
Andrew Jones	4	33.9%	Aramis Ramírez	1	1.0%

THE VOTING ELECTORATE: Of the 414 Hall of Fame ballots distributed to BBWAA voters for the 2021 election, 401 were returned, a return rate of 96.9 percent...The most ballots ever cast in one BBWAA Hall of Fame election came in 2011 with 581...Voting privileges are extended to those BBWAA members meeting their organization's Hall of Fame voting qualifications and in good standing with the BBWAA...Voters can select from zero to 10 names on their Hall of Fame ballot...Votes on 75 percent of all ballots cast are necessary for election.

CAREFUL SELECTION: 2021 marked the 77th Hall of Fame election held by the BBWAA...Starting in 1936, the BBWAA has elected someone 68 times and on nine occasions it did not elect anyone (1945, 1946, 1950, 1958, 1960, 1971, 1996, 2013, 2021)...On nine occasions, no election was held (1940, 1941, 1943, 1944, 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963, 1965)...The BBWAA membership has elected from zero to five candidates in each of its 77 elections...As quantified in the chart below, the BBWAA has voted in two players more than any other quantity (27 times).

ELECTED	TIMES	LAST	CLASS
5	1	1936	Cobb, Johnson, Mathewson, Ruth, Wagner
4	5	2019	Halladay, Martinez, Mussina, Rivera
3	9	2017	Bagwell, Raines, Rodríguez
2	27	2020	Jeter, Walker
1	26	2012	Larkin
0	9	2021	----

NINE FROM 13: The 2021 election marked the ninth time in 77 BBWAA Hall of Fame elections that no candidate appeared on the 75 percent of ballots necessary to earn election...The most recent election that yielded no candidates came in 2013...In the eight years since then, nine candidates on that ballot have earned Hall of Fame election, either via the BBWAA vote or the Eras Committee process...The nine candidates from the 2013 BBWAA Hall of Fame ballot who have since earned Hall of Fame election include: Jeff Bagwell (elected by BBWAA in 2017), Craig Biggio (elected by BBWAA in 2015), Edgar Martinez (elected by BBWAA in 2019), Jack Morris (elected by Modern Baseball Era Committee in 2018), Mike Piazza (elected by BBWAA in 2016), Tim Raines (elected by BBWAA in 2017), Lee Smith (elected by Today's Game Era Committee in 2019), Alan Trammell (elected by Modern Baseball Era Committee in 2018) and Larry Walker (elected by BBWAA in 2020).

ROSTER ADDITIONS: From 2014-20, the BBWAA elected at least two Hall of Fame candidates in seven straight years and a total of 22 candidates during that time...The 2014-2020 stretch marked the first time the BBWAA has elected two-or-more candidates in seven consecutive years and the most total electees in any seven-year stretch...The 2014-2020 stretch also featured at least one first-ballot inductee in seven straight years, the first such stretch since a run of eight straight years from 1988-95.

THREE FOURS: In three of the last seven BBWAA elections, four candidates have earned a place in Cooperstown...Roy Halladay, Edgar Martinez, Mike Mussina and Mariano Rivera were elected in 2019; Vladimir Guerrero, Trevor Hoffman, Chipper Jones and Jim Thome were elected in 2018; and Craig Biggio, Randy Johnson, Pedro Martínez and John Smoltz were elected in 2015...The other two years that featured exactly four BBWAA electees were 1947 (Mickey Cochrane, Frankie Frisch, Lefty Grove and Carl Hubbell) and 1955 (Joe DiMaggio, Gabby Hartnett, Ted Lyons and Dazzy Vance)...Only one BBWAA election featured as many as five electees: The inaugural election of 1936 that produced inductees Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner.

39 IN 60: The most recent year that featured no Hall of Fame electees either by the BBWAA or a veterans election body was 1960, where no BBWAA candidate reached the 75 percent threshold needed for election and no veterans election was held...Edd Roush, who would be elected to the Hall of Fame in 1962, received the most votes of any candidate on the BBWAA ballot in 1960, finishing with 54.3 percent of the vote...Each of the top 12 vote-getters in that election were eventually elected to the Hall of Fame: Luke Appling, Jim Bottomley, Kiki Cuyler, Red Faber, Lefty Gomez, Burleigh Grimes, Tony Lazzeri, Sam Rice, Eppa Rixey, Red Ruffing, Hack Wilson and Roush...In total, 39 candidates who received votes in the 1960 BBWAA election were eventually enshrined in Cooperstown.

NOT TOO DISTANT FUTURE: A partial list of eligible first-time players for upcoming Hall of Fame elections includes: 2022: Prince Fielder, David Ortiz, Álex Rodríguez, Mark Teixeira; 2023: Carlos Beltrán, John Lackey, Francisco Rodríguez, Jayson Werth; 2024: Adrián Beltré, Joe Mauer, Chase Utley, David Wright; 2025: Brian McCann, CC Sabathia, Ichiro Suzuki, Troy Tulowitzki; 2026: Alex Gordon, Nick Markakis, Daniel Murphy, Hunter Pence

RULES FOR ELECTION: Voting criteria for BBWAA electors can be found at <http://baseballhall.org/hall-famers/rules-election/bbwaa>...Voting rules state that: “Voting shall be based upon the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, and contributions to the team(s) on which the player played.”

THE GAME’S ELITE: The Hall of Fame is comprised of 333 elected members...Included are 263 former major league players, as well as 38 executives/pioneers, 22 managers and 10 umpires....The BBWAA has elected 134 candidates to the Hall while the veterans committees (in all forms) have chosen 173 deserving candidates (101 major leaguers, 31 executives, 22 managers, 10 umpires and nine Negro Leaguers)...The defunct “Committee on Negro Baseball Leagues” selected nine men between 1971-77 and the Special Committee on Negro Leagues in 2006 elected 17 Negro Leaguers...In 2020, players who appeared in seven specific Negro Leagues from 1920-1948 were designated with major league status...There are currently 72 living members.

72 AMBASSADORS: The 72 living members of the Hall of Fame are: Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Jeff Bagwell, Harold Baines, Johnny Bench, Craig Biggio, Bert Blyleven, Wade Boggs, George Brett, Rod Carew, Steve Carlton, Orlando Cepeda, Bobby Cox, Andre Dawson, Dennis Eckersley, Rollie Fingers, Carlton Fisk, Pat Gillick, Tom Glavine, Goose Gossage, Ken Griffey Jr., Vladimir Guerrero, Rickey Henderson, Whitey Herzog, Trevor Hoffman, Reggie Jackson, Ferguson Jenkins, Derek Jeter, Randy Johnson, Chipper Jones, Sandy Koufax, Barry Larkin, Tony La Russa, Greg Maddux, Juan Marichal, Edgar Martinez, Pedro Martínez, Willie Mays, Bill Mazeroski, Paul Molitor, Jack Morris, Eddie Murray, Mike Mussina, Jim Palmer, Tony Pérez, Gaylord Perry, Mike Piazza, Tim Lincecum, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken, Mariano Rivera, Brooks Robinson, Iván Rodríguez, Nolan Ryan, Ryne Sandberg, Mike Schmidt, John Schuerholz, Bud Selig, Ted Simmons, Lee Smith, Ozzie Smith, John Smoltz, Bruce Sutter, Frank Thomas, Jim Thome, Joe Torre, Alan Trammell, Larry Walker, Billy Williams, Dave Winfield, Carl Yastrzemski and Robin Yount.

CONNECTING GENERATIONS: Willie Mays, born May 6, 1931, is currently the oldest living Hall of Famer at 90...Vladimir Guerrero, who was born on Feb. 9, 1975, is the youngest living Hall of Famer at 46 years of age.

BETWEEN THE LINES: Including Negro League players, the following is a breakdown by position of the 263 Hall of Famers who earned their election on the playing field...Also included is the last major leaguer to be elected at each position...Numbers in parentheses indicate Hall of Famers elected by the BBWAA at each position.

Pitchers 83 (45)	Second Basemen ..20 (11)	Left Fielders22 (12)
Catchers 19 (10)	Third Basemen 17 (8)	Center Fielders24 (8)

MUSEUM NEWS FROM COOPERSTOWN

JOSH RAWITCH NAMED PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM: Jane Forbes Clark, Chairman of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, announced on June 28 that Josh Rawitch has been named President of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. Rawitch will begin serving in that capacity on Sept. 9. Until that date, Jeff Idelson will continue in his current role as Interim President, which he has held since returning to the Hall of Fame on May 15. Rawitch, 44, has spent 27 seasons working in baseball, including the last decade with the Arizona Diamondbacks, serving as the team’s Senior Vice President of Content and Communications for the past six years. He joined the Diamondbacks after 15 years as part of the Los Angeles Dodgers’ front office. In his most recent role with the Diamondbacks, Rawitch has overseen player and media relations, corporate communications, broadcasting, content production, social media, creative services, in-game entertainment, Spring Training business operations, team archives, alumni relations, publications and photography. A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Rawitch joined the Dodgers’ staff in 1995 and spent parts of five seasons in the team’s marketing department before shifting to public relations. He left the organization to serve as a beat reporter for Major League Baseball Advanced Media from 2001-02, after which he returned to the Dodgers, eventually rising to the position of Vice President of Communications. Rawitch becomes the eighth president in the 82-year history of the organization, following Stephen C. Clark, Sr., founder of the Hall of Fame and grandfather of current Chairman, Jane Forbes Clark, Paul Kerr, Edward W. Stack, Donald C. Marr Jr., Dale A. Petroskey, Jeff Idelson and Tim Mead, who in April announced he was stepping down from the role.

COMING TO COOPERSTOWN: The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum has already received treasures from the 2021 season, including: Batting gloves worn by Yermín Mercedes of the White Sox when he went 5-for-5 in his first game of the season, then followed up with three hits in his first three at-bats the following day, making him the first player in the Modern Era (post 1900) to start a season with hits in his first eight at-bats...Spikes worn by the Diamondbacks' Tim Lincecum when he set a new record by successfully stealing his 28th straight base to start his career...Cap and a game-used ball from Carlos Rodón, used during his no-hitter for the White Sox on April 14...Red Sox yellow and blue City Connect jersey worn by Xander Bogaerts on April 17-18...The cap worn by the Diamondbacks' Madison Bumgarner and a game ball from the April 25 game where Bumgarner held the Braves without a hit during a seven-inning contest as part of a doubleheader...The bat used by the Angels' Shohei Ohtani on April 4 when he started the game on the mound and hit the first pitch he saw as a batter for a home run...A Dodgers' 2020 World Series ring...The cap worn by the Padres' Joe Musgrove and a ball from his April 9 no-hitter...A cap worn by the Orioles' John Means and a ball he threw during his May 5 no-hitter...A jersey worn by the Gwinnett Stripers' Sean Kazmar Jr. on May 28 when the team honored local frontline workers with names written within the jerseys' pinstripes...Jersey worn by the Athletics' Stephen Piscotty, whose mother passed away from the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, on June 2 as part of MLB's Lou Gehrig Day...A wristband worn by the Mariners' Jacob Nottingham, whose grandmother and aunt passed away from the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, on June 2 as part of MLB's Lou Gehrig Day...Giants cap worn by San Francisco manager Gabe Kapler on June 5 when the Giants became the first team to feature a rainbow colored "pride" logo on-field...White Sox cap worn by Hall of Famer Tony La Russa on June 6 when he was recognized as passing John McGraw for second place on the all-time managerial wins list.

COOPERSTOWN CONNECTION

MUSEUM DEBUTS HALL OF FAME CONNECTIONS YOUTUBE SERIES: Through its new YouTube series Hall of Fame Connections, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is sharing the fascinating connections that link early baseball with today's game...Produced by MLB Network and made possible by a grant from New York State's Division of Tourism, the series looks at the Hall of Fame's collection from a new and exciting angle, with each episode telling a different story of how two seemingly unrelated artifacts in the Museum's vast collection connect to each other, crossing through generations of baseball history...Each two-part episode features both a narrative storytelling element that weaves through the history of some of the Museum's most iconic artifacts, and the Hall of Fame's curators conversing about those artifacts and stories with MLB Network personalities Carlos Peña, a former MLB All-Star, and sports journalist Lindsay Berra, the granddaughter of Hall of Fame catcher Yogi Berra...The series consists of 13 episodes, all available to stream for free through the Hall of Fame's YouTube channel at youtube.com/baseballhall...New episodes will be released each Wednesday through early September.
